

Dear Ben Franklin,
Thank you for coming to visit us. Thank you for inventing electricity. Thank you for telling us about your life.
Love, Emily P., 3rd grade

Dear John Muir,
Thank you for coming to our class. It must have been scary to have a staring contest with a bear. You are very lucky that you didn't die that day! Oh, and it must be gross to take a bath only once a week. Well, bye now. Alondra 4th grade

Thank you, thank you so much, Mr. Muir, for taking time out of your day to do this. I'm so happy because I'm going there (Yosemite) in two years and now I can't wait! From, Paige

Dear Mr. Lincoln,
You're taller than I expected. But I think it might be your hat. Could you take it off next time? Sincerely, Alexa K., 1st grade

Dear Lady Pilgrim,
Thank you for telling us about your trip. My parents took a cruise and they said there was lots of food. Maybe you should try their boat next time. Thank you. Derek F. B., 1st grade.
